

Practical and Work-Based Training Venues for Hospitality Courses

PRACTICAL VENUES FOR COMMERCIAL COOKERY and HOSPITALITY COURSES:

THE CULINARY WORKSHOP

As the official training venue for Stanley College hospitality courses, The Culinary Workshop has two commercial kitchens and a restaurant on campus. This provides students with a distinct advantage as they can develop and improve their cookery, management, customer service and other skills in a real work environment. SIT30816 Certificate III in Commercial Cookery students spend 20 weeks (Term Two and Three) in the kitchen learning practical skills before going to work-based training for 10 weeks (Term Four) at our partner clubs/hotels.
